I am a man of pot and pan, I am a lad of met - tle, My tent I pitch by the way-side ditch, To mend your can and ket - tle: While

f town bred folk bear a year long yoke, A - mong their fee - ble fel - lows, I ff mp clink and clank on the hedge-rows bank, And blow my snor-ing bel - lows. I cresc. rall. ff flung her cap at a plough-man chap, And a fool I needs must think her, Who left for an oaf, the mug and loaf, And the snug little tent of a tin-ker.

But

mf

clank and clang, let women go hang, And who shall care a far-den? With the sol - der strong of a laugh and song, My mind I'll heal and har - den, My
